

Why you gotta go give me the ick, ick?
We were doing just fine, now I'm gonna be sick, sick
I ain't changing my mind, so get off of my dick, dick
Why you gotta go, why you gotta go give me the ick, ick?
It's like I'm gonna be sick, huuurggehh!
Why you gotta go give me the ick?
Why you gotta go give me the Ick?
Why you gotta go give me the ick?

Used to love that boyfriend energy
Couldn't live without you next to me
Even found your bad jokes funny, but now
Don't you get one inch closer to me
Can you please just
Let me breathe
'Cause your whole damn vibe's kinda freakin' me out

We're still livin' in the same house
Even got your name on my bank account
I don't wanna let you down

Why you gotta go give me the ick?
Why you gotta go give me the ick, ick?
We were doing just fine, now I'm gonna be sick, sick
I ain't changing my mind, so get off of my dick, dick
Why you gotta go, why you gotta go give me the ick, ick?
It's like I'm gonna be sick, huuurggehh!

Guess we're here now, ain't no turning back
Give a kiss goodbye to your mom and dad
Hope I don't see you on a dating app now
Sorry you're still so in love with me
Don't you pull that face now, pretty please
This is getting weird, so I'ma leave town

We're still livin' in the same house
Even got your name on my bank account
I don't wanna let you down

Why you gotta go give me the ick, ick?
We were doing just fine, now I'm gonna be sick, sick
I ain't changing my mind, so get off of my dick, dick
Why you gotta go, why you gotta go give me the ick, ick?
It's like I'm gonna be sick, huuurggehh!
