

Head Above the Water

Anne Murray

Keep your head above the water
Says the man in the sky
And don't believe you've ever got it made
That's alright for you
He knows just what's going on
Me, I'm just sometimes a bit afraid

Please hear my song, Mr. God
Whisper in my ear
That I might soon, lay my burdens down

I took a picture of the sun [?]
And hung it on the wall
And you've been kind enough to lead it there
But your makers' winds are blowing up
The lonely eastern shore
I feel the need for God
Where I've never been before

Hear my song, Mr. God
Come whisper in my ear
That I might soon, lay my burdens down
Please, hear my song, Mr. God
Come whisper in my ear
That I might soon, lay my burdens down
