

I Really Don't Want To Know

Anne Murray

How many arms have held you
And hated to let you go
How many, how many, I wonder
But I really don't want to know

And how many lips have kissed you
And set your soul aglow
How many, how many, I wonder
But I really don't want to know

So always make me wonder
Always make me guess
And even if I ask you
Darlin' don't confess

Just let it remain your secret
But darlin' I love you so
No wonder, no wonder I wonder
But I really don't want to know

Always make me wonder
Always make me guess
And even if I ask you
Darlin' don't confess

Just let it remain your secret
But darlin' I love you so
No wonder, no wonder I wonder
But I really don't want to know

But I really don't want to know
