

Lift Your Hearts to the Sun

Anne Murray

Raise your head and look to the sky
And don't ask question such as "Why?"
Lift your hearts and look to the sun
Soon you'll see that we are one

Thy will's the way
For a brighter day
Thy will be done
For a new kingdom
For a new kingdom

There's no need to feel alone
We're passing through and it's our home
Home for you, home for me
It's as perfect as can be

Thy will's the way
For a brighter day
Thy will be done
For a new kingdom
For a new kingdom

So we must try to understand
Far of the sun and of the sand
I need your will, I need your way
Make it better every day

Your will's the way
For a brighter day
Your will be done
For a new kingdom, yeah
For a new kingdom
