

Missing You

Anne Murray

I've been missing you
Even when you're in my arms you're miles away with someone else
I'm missing you
It's terrible
Unthinkable
Your 14-karat promises don't shine inside your eyes
Don't look so surprised

That I'm missing you
How I'm missing you
Even when I'm kissing you I know I've been a fool
It seemed impossible
That I'd be missing you

I've been missing you
I can see you dancing with her in your arms
As tears roll down this dancing cloud
I was missing you
How I'm missing you
Even when I'm kissing you I know I've been a fool
It seemed impossible
That I'd be missing you
Ooh-oh
