Some Birds

Anne Murray

When my thoughts they cast
Your reflection
The honey from your eyes froze my direction

It keeps me hanging on
It keeps me hanging on
It keeps me hanging on to your perfection

Some birds sing
Some birds fly
One bird laps
The other one cry
But lovers sing
Lovers cry
But they don't have to die

Yesterday is such a funny place to be in
You played the game for fun
But now you can't win

You keep hanging on
You keep hanging on
You keep hanging on dreaming

Some birds sing
Some birds fly
One bird laps
The other one cry
But lovers sing
Lovers cry
But they don't have to die
But lovers sing
Lovers cry
But they don't have to die
