

Someone Else Today

Anne Murray

Winter's flying high
Above the autumn afternoon
Crystals floating in the air
Summer will be frozen soon
I was lonely when you left
And summer sailed away
Winter can be happy too

I met someone else to date
Mmmh

Eyes of ice, hands at sea
I do whatever you told me
Time is moving fast
Forcing me to go around
Love and hate and copy downs
Everything becomes a sound
He is honey, wheat and laughter
Through the icy frozen storms
Dancing what is womanly

I met someone else to date
Mmmh
Mmmh
Mmmh
