

Until I Was Loved by You

Anne Murray

Yeah, yeah
I, I

I've waited, I've done my time
At the end of the day it's no good to ask why
I have whispered, I have cried
I've felt the bitterness and kept it inside
My love killed me, with no trace
It's just another heartbreak

I never saw the light in my eyes
I never heard the thunder as it filled up the skies
Until I, until I
I never, ever fallen so far
I never knew a feeling like the storm in my heart
Until I, until I was loved by you, yeah

Oh, when you hold me, I let go
I know all those sweet emotions that lovers should know
You're so tender, you're so strong
With you I get the feeling that nothing is wrong
Yeah, it's strange, but it's true
It's like I have been waiting my whole life for you

'Cause I never saw the light in my eyes
I never heard the thunder as it filled up the skies
Until I, until I
Oh, I never, ever fallen so far
I never knew a feeling like the storm in my heart
Until I, until I was loved by you

So much I never knew
I want to surrender myself to you
I love the way that you do
Everything
Ah, ah
Yeah, yeah

I never saw the light in my eyes
I never heard the thunder as it filled up the skies
Until I, until I
I never, ever fallen so far
I never knew a feeling like the storm in my heart
Until I, until I was loved

I never saw the light in my eyes
I never heard the thunder as it filled up the skies
Until I, until I
I never, ever fallen so far
I never knew a feeling like the storm in my heart
Until I, until I was loved

I never saw the light in my eyes
I never heard the thunder as it filled up the skies
Until I, until I
