

You Haven't Heard the Last of Me

Anne Murray

And I won't give up until you see
Oh you won't admit it
But your hearts got the upper hand
And I know that the time has come
To make you understand

That you haven't heard the last of me
I'm gonna play upon your sympathy
Till I get you back again
And I thought I'd ought to let you know
I'm never gonna let you go
Until I win and you give in
You're gonna see
That you haven't heard the last of me

We turned our backs on true romance
And we never gave our love a chance
Oh it's so easy to let a lover slip away
And I know if I had the chance
I could make you stay

That you haven't heard the last of me
I'm gonna play upon your sympathy
Till I get you back again
And I thought I'd ought to let you know
I'm never gonna let you go
Until I win and you give in
You're gonna see
That you haven't heard the last of me

And... So don't think I'd go without you
Knowing the way I feel my fate is sealed
This love of mine is real

That you haven't heard the last of me
I'm gonna play upon your sympathy
Till I get you back again
And I thought I'd ought to let you know
I'm never gonna let you go
Until I win and you give in
You're gonna see
That you haven't heard the last of me

I'm gonna play upon your sympathy
Till I get you back again
