

Devil Is Too

Anne Wilson

He can look like a boy in boots with a cowboy attitude
Making eyes from an old barstool, yes, he can
He can look like a dollar bill, another shot or another pill
He can look like an empty bottle on a one-night stand

But I never will forget
What Mama always said

Keep your eyes wide open
Guard that heart 'cause he's looking for a way to break through
Don't want to go where that long black train is rolling
I've lived enough to know it's true
God is real but the devil is too

He can promise you the world, tell you everything you wanna hear, girl
Yeah, I ain't gonna lie, he'll probably make it look like fun
Chances are he's gonna knock you down, but don't you dare stay on the ground
Take the hand of the man who's got him on the run

Keep your eyes wide open
Guard that heart 'cause he's looking for a way to break through
Don't want to go where that long black train is rolling
I've lived enough to know it's true
God is real but the devil is too

Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there

Keep your eyes wide open
Guard that heart 'cause he's looking for a way to break through
Don't want to go where that long black train is rolling
I've lived enough to know it's true
God is real
I've lived enough to know it's true
God is real
But the devil is too
Yes, He is
The devil is too

Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
Hit your knees, say a prayer
Call on Jesus 'cause you know He's there
