

Stand

Anne Wilson

Stay quiet, blend in, don't let 'em know what you think
Don't offend, just give in to what the crowd believes
Yeah, you can always

Just go with the flow, don't you dare push back
Stay low, don't you know it's safer where you're at Yeah, you can always be the one who ran
Or you can

Stand, stand your ground
Say, "I won't back down"
Even when the whole world's against me
I'm standing strong 'cause I know who's with me
Brave in the face of fear
Let 'em know you're here
Yeah, we all got a choice in life
You can run, you can hide, you can fall for the lies or
Stand

Will you stand for love when all you see is hate?
Will you follow the crowd or will you lead the way?
You ain't meant to be the one who ran

Stand, stand your ground
Say, "I won't back down"
Even when the whole world's against me
I'm standing strong 'cause I know who's with me
Brave in the face of fear
Let 'em know you're here
Yeah, we all got a choice in life
You can run, you can hide, you can fall for the lies or
Stand

Stand for injustice, stand for the weak
Stand for the voiceless that need you to speak
Stand for what's right, stand for what's true
Stand like a cross on a hill that stood for you

Stand, stand your ground
Say, "I won't back down"
Even when my whole world's against me
I'm standing strong 'cause I know who's with me
Brave in the face of fear
Let 'em know you're here
Yeah, we all got a choice in life
You can run, you can hide, you can fall for the lies or
Stand

Oh, you can stand
I'm gonna stand
