

Gone If I Close My Eyes

Anni B Sweet

Like an animal my soul out of control today I have a reason to roar

I plan to move away from the shapeless maps of days out of the sunrays

I felt in to a storm while the sun was out I made the whole crowd laugh I had to close my eyes

Once my mind was stripped my thoughts were there to show I made the whole crowd laugh they were reading out my mind

I don't want to see stonelike faces covering simple minds if I have to hide or travel I just have to close my eyes
