

Someone Else

Anni B Sweet

Did you ever care about our time just running wild and never stopping by? I did many times Did you ever wonder what made you choose between two ways when the both of them equally make sense?

Well your home is staying here and darling I'll be there I said all your tears will be dried by the sun

Did you ever wonder why love and pain go hand in hand still the most beautiful thing you've ever felt? Did you ever wonder why you are who you are instead of being someone else? You should wonder why

Well your home is staying here and darling I'll be there I said all your tears will be dried by the sun

Did you ever care about our time just running wild and never stopping by?

I did many times Did you ever wonder why love and pain go hand in hand still the most beautiful thing you've ever felt?
