

Hybrid

Annie DiRusso

I'm soaking wet with no shoes on
Standing at almost 5 foot 1
The doctor says I'm done

Growing apart
I grabbed your arm
I didn't mean you any harm

I held on way too long
I'll hold on, I'll hold on

Digging your thumbs into my shoulders
Not enough, just run me over
I'll stand still if you will
I'll stand still, I'll stand still

I love you
But it's no use
It's no good
I don't love you how I should
No

Passenger side
Feels like July
Your parents hybrid
You were driving
I was lifeless
I liked it

We pulled your mattress to the floor
You woke me up around 4
Had a bad dream about me
You were right then to doubt me

I love you
But it's no use
It's no good
And I don't love you how I should
