Nauseous

Annie DiRusso

What if I stayed here and gave it up?
What if I cleaned my room, then we f*cked? (We f*cked)
What if I laid here just like she would?
What if I practiced and got really good?

'Cause all I wanna be is everything
That you need and more
If I were to give you everything
It wouldn't be enough

I wanna be your pretty girl
I'll never be your pretty girl
I wanna be your pretty girl
I'll never be your pretty girl

Just like a lost dog, you'll search all night
Probably won't like what you'll find
It makes me nauseous, sick at the sight
With my own world, my own design

'Cause all I wanna be is everything

That you need and more
If I were to give you everything
It wouldn't be enough

I wanna be your pretty girl
I'll never be your pretty girl
I wanna be your pretty girl
I'll never be your pretty girl

I got all dressed up, but I'll stay home
Got all dressed up, don't wanna go
I'll just stay in and think of you
I'll just stay in and clean my room

All I wanna be is everything
(I cleaned my room for you)
If I were to give you everything
It wouldn't be enough

I wanna be your pretty girl
I'll never be your pretty girl
I wanna be your pretty girl
I'll never be your pretty girl
