

In Another Life

Annie Haslam

If my loving you could change the river's flow
I would not let you drift away from me
I'd never let go
I want to be by your side
but the water's too deep and wide

In another life
In another place
I have held you close
I have known your grace
in another world
in another time
you'll be mine
you'll be mine

If I touched you now I'd only lose my mind
in a cruel world we live in one life at a time
I don't know where or when but we'll pass this way again

In another life
In another place
I have held you close
I have known your grace
in another world
in another time
you'll be mine
you'll be mine
