It Came Upon A Midnight Clear

Annie Haslam

It came upon the midnight clear
That glorious song of old
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men
From heaven's all-gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing!

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long
Beneath the angel strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love song which they bring:
"O hush the noise, ye men of strife
And hear the angels sing!"

Still through the cloven skies they come With peaceful wings unfurled And still their heavenly music floats Over all the weary world Above its sad and lowly plains They bend on hovering wing And ever over its Babel sounds The blessed angels sing

All ye, beneath life's crushing load Whose forms are bending low Who toil along the climbing way With painful steps and slow Look, now, for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing O rest beside the weary road And hear the angels sing!

For lo! the days are hastening on By prophet bards foretold When with the ever-circling years Comes 'round the age of gold When peace shall over all the earth Its ancient splendors fling And the whole world give back the song Which now the angels sing!
