Oh Anthonio, It's been nearly one year since Our Rio Nights of forever Pictures of you and me Dancing and memories Through the masquerade You led me by the hand Whispered the words "This Is Forever" Said from the silver tongue Thats where it started from Oh Anthonio, My Anthonio, Was I ever more than just a face in the crowd? Did you even know my name? Did you ever really care? Oh Anthonio, My Anthonio, Do you ever wonder why, Or where I am now? Do you ever feel ashamed? Do you even feel a thing? Οh There I was under stars Hearts made in the sand Lying from the boy From Ipanema Tide comes rushing in Time and time again Now that summer has gone Where did you run? All my letters are Returned to sender For eternity You're a part of me Oh Anthonio, My Anthonio, Was I ever more than just a face in the crowd? Did you even know my name? Did you ever really care? Oh Anthonio, My Anthonio, Do you ever wonder why, Or where I am now? Do you ever feel ashamed? Do you even feel a thing?

Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
You got everything you ever wanted from me,
I was just another girl
It was just another night

Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
There is only one thing,
That I'm trying to say
It may come as a suprise
My baby has your eyes.
