

All throughout the centuries
Existing year to year
Lives on this powerful entity
To thrive on pain and fear
A derelict of heavenly Gods
A feeling from within
Weakened minds are perfect prey
Corrosion will begin

Some won't fight, the battle is forsaken
Show no might, the dark side has awakened

Even in the holiest the curious can be found
Their wonderment is dangerous
As virtue is but bound
Moral codes, broken
What's the sin that lurks within
The burning emotion of hatred

Some won't fight
The battle is forsaken
Show no might
The dark side has awakened

Wicked mystic

Hatred lurks in all of us
No one is exempt
It's proof of evil in our souls
Is this the tempter's intent
A derelict of heavenly Gods
A feeling from within
Weak minds are perfect prey
For corrosion to begin

Some won't fight
The battle is forsaken
Show no might
The dark side has awakened

Wicked mystic
Wicked mystic, mystic
