

Hypocrite

Annika Rose

I think it's funny I'm the
Therapist for all my friends
They run to me to help them feel alive

I think it's funny I've got
Answers to all their questions
But turn around and never listen to my advice

I tell them
You should keep the boy if he feels like home
You should tell your mom that you love her so much
Stick around, don't put up a wall, yeah
Then you'll get what you really want

But ask me bout my feelings well I'll never show
And if I like a boy well he'll never know
I'm pretty sure there's a word for that, yeah
I guess I know what I really am

Hypocrite
Am I a-
Am I a hypocrite
Hypocrite
I don't listen to myself
Hypocrite
Hypocrite
Everyone listens but me

Hypocrite
Am I a-
Am I a hypocrite
Hypocrite
I don't listen to myself
Hypocrite
Hypocrite
Everyone listens but me

I say to practice patience, use communication
But I lose my shit when things don't work like I planned
I sound so convincing
Telling these people how they should be living
It almost makes me listen, listen to my own advice

You should keep the boy if he feels like home
You should tell your mom that you love her so much
Stick around, don't put up a wall, yeah
Then you'll get what you really want

But ask me bout my feelings well I'll never show
And if I like a boy well he'll never know
I'm pretty sure there's a word for that, yeah
I guess I know what I really am

Hypocrite
Am I a-
Am I a hypocrite

Hypocrite

Hypocrite

Hypocrite

Everyone listens but me

Who's gonna save me

When I'm in too deep?

See the trouble with me

I don't practice what I preach

Who's gonna save me

When I've gone too far?

When I let down my guard

I should practice what I preach

So who's gonna save me

When I'm in too deep?

See the trouble with me

Oh I don't practice what I preach

Who's gonna save me

When I've gone too far?

When I let down my guard

I should practice what I preach

Hypocrite

Am I a-

Am I a hypocrite

Hypocrite

I don't listen to myself

Hypocrite

Hypocrite

Everyone listens but me

Hypocrite

Am I a-

Am I a hypocrite

Hypocrite

I don't listen to myself

Hypocrite

Hypocrite

Everyone listens but me

Now who's gonna save me

When I'm in too deep?

See the trouble with me
