

MOTH

Annika Rose

Thinking of last June
I felt it in my chest but it was too soon
Wake up to soft eyes
You'd pull the sheets over my head when it was too bright

Time goes
And sadly so did I

But didn't I didn't I love you
So good when I wanted to
Didn't I didn't I love you
So good so good

Didn't I didn't I love you
It kills me I think you knew
Didn't I didn't I love you
I should I should

I'll be the one you can blame
I am a moth to a flame
Time is a war with change
And we are so stuck in the same

Time goes
And sadly so did I

But didn't I didn't I love you
So good when I wanted to
Didn't I didn't I love you
So good so good
Didn't I didn't I love you
It kills me I think you knew
Didn't I didn't I love you
I should I should've known

(Wolf in sheep clothing let go, go, let go
I just have to be on my own
On my own)

Free fall without a rope

(Wolf in sheep clothing let go, go, let go
I just have to be on my own
On my own)
Alone

I am a moth to a flame
And we were so stuck in the same
