

Riverside Drive

Annika Rose

We come into this world a blank slate
Unadulterated
Unscathed
To learn to love
To learn to live
To surrender to the journey
We start off crawling
We get a little taller
We start to hear stories
We start to tell stories
We find chaos
And we find stillness
And in both we do mental gymnastics
To protect ourselves from getting sea sick
All on our way through this giant mystery
We continue to share one thing
One sky, endless imagination
This chapter begins
