

Get Your Shit Together

Annisokay

The sky is falling
The winds are howling
The seas are rising
The earth is growling

We're lost in chaos
The future's unclear
No one to lead us
Through all that we fear

The fields are burning
The fire converging
The dreams are dying
There's no returning
Their hearts are aching
The time slipping away
Every second you choose to waste

As a servant of the people under oath
Every lie you told for every single vote
Only driving further into the unknown
What have you done?
Now run

You're serving up a shit show
Have you lost your fucking mind?

Walking endless like a ghost within the walls
Every dream that I pursue is just another one to fall
In a race with my own shadow breathless from the frantic pace
How can I escape in front of everything I chase?

Caught in a vortex - spinning out
Lost inside the wake
Walking through fire in the night
Searching for the day
They claim it's never more than a term
A tempest to all endure
But we're fighting for all our lives
To see the end of the storm

And now you've sparked a fire within
Time to turn the tide of fate - break the cycle I'm in What if I wear the mask?
Say that all is just fine?
Every day drawing closer to the end of the line
I run

You're serving up a shit show
Have you lost your fucking mind?

I've dreamed of a symphony
A perfect harmony
But the maestro has lost his head
In entropy - caught on repeat

Every little bite you take

The slightest taste of veiled deceit
Is left upon your grinning teeth
So get your shit together

Chains weigh heavy, every word, poison in our veins
Falling from grace, through the pain, enduring these chains
Silence screams, voices fade, in a world untamed
Life's a ruthless fight and in the end we're left maimed

We're getting maimed!
So get your shit together!

I've dreamed of a symphony
A perfect harmony
But the maestro has lost his head

Every little bite you take
The slightest taste of veiled deceit
Is left upon your grinning teeth
So get your shit together

Pull yourself together now
Get your shit together
