

Into the Gray

Annisokay

I've never been someone who was looking back
Rushing through my life, always stayed on track
We missed out on time to reconnect
No space no room to give you something back

We're chasing diamonds just to see
The ones we love are all we need
Nothing is built for eternity
So Tell Me

What if I loose you?
What if this life takes you away?
What if I can't get through?
When you fly off into the clouds
Into the clouds
Into the clouds
Into, into the grey

The Silence is echoing
In spaces unsaid
Can I find closure
Or will there just be regret?

We're chasing diamonds just to see
The ones we love are all we need
Nothing is built for eternity
So Tell Me

What if I loose you?
What if this life takes you away?
What if I can't get through?
When you fly off into the clouds
Into the clouds
Into the clouds
Into, into the grey

I'm too afraid to say
That time will wash the pain away

I'm too afraid to say
That I could make it without you
Day by day

What if I loose you?
What if this life takes you away?
What if I can't get through?
When you fly off into the clouds
Into the clouds
Into the clouds
Into, into the grey
