

Never Enough

Annisokay

Drowning deep In the agony
The war inside of me
I am my own worst enemy

Waking in the middle of a firefight
Shells in the trench of my clouded mind
The battlefield of my mistakes
And tattered dreams all laid to waste

Under darkened skies I ignite my soul
Light the fuse in a world gone cold
Behind enemy lines
Searching for a spark of life

I wanna be invincible
Breaking through our disbelief
Don't wanna turn out paranoid
Searching for things I can't see
When all the walls are caving in
We fight for room to breathe
And I can feel the dawn above
Warm to the touch
But it's never enough
But it's never enough

The weapon of doubt an unrelenting attack
Shrapnel cuts further in my back
Fear and mistrust circle overhead
I'm bound to what I dread

Under darkened skies I ignite my soul
Light the fuse in a world gone cold
Behind enemy lines
Searching for a spark of life

I wanna be invincible
Breaking through our disbelief
Don't wanna turn out paranoid
Searching for things I can't see
When all the walls are caving in
We fight for room to breathe
And I can feel the dawn above
Warm to the touch
But it's never enough

My scorn
My sin
I let it all crawl under my skin
My scorn
My sin
I let it all crawl under my skin
I don't give a shit

I let it all crawl under my skin
I don't give a fuck
I don't give a shit
I let it all crawl in

(I wanna be invincible
Breaking through our disbelief
Don't wanna turn out paranoid
Searching for things I can't see)
When all the walls are caving in
We fight for room to breathe
And I can feel the dawn above
Warm to the touch
But it's never enough...

(I let it all crawl under my skin)
