

Breaking

ANOHNI

I dream a white doe in the hills
I dream a willow blowing still
I watch as it's swept away
I take and take
A little more and then I seen
That forest fall
And my garden was swept away
That love it was swept away

It's really something to be
Breaking

This time, my friends it's different
This time it never happened before

It's really something to be
Breaking
It's really something to be
Breaking
It's really something to be
Breaking

I dream a white doe in the hills
I dream a willow blowing still
I watch as it's swept away
