

R.N.C. 2020

ANOHNI

You've really said it now
Really did it now
Trump is on the rise
He's gonna Execute the dream
He's gonna Execute the dream
Lying as we die
He's gonna go through those pockets
He's gonna go through those pockets
They didn't have to die
My friend he didn't have to die
I watch you lying through your teeth
Your white white teeth
White white teeth
Your children and their white white teeth
You're lying and lying and lying and lying and
You're a liar
But what does that even mean anymore?
What do words mean anymore?
What's there left to believe anymore
Trump's a killer
Mitch McConnell, he's a killer
He's a killer
He's gonna take you're life
And gut you like a fish
Strung up like a catch, yeah
Lying as we die
Pence, his eyes blazing
What is this?
Triumph of the will?
America the great
I won't sing for you
Here it comes
Execution
Here it comes
Take a deep breath now
Take a deep breath
Take a deep breath
You've gotta take a deep breath
You've gotta take a deep breath
Here they come now with their lethal injections
Who are they gonna inject next?
The earth?
Your mother?
Your sister?
Your brother?
