Empty

Another Day Dawns

Yeah, yeah

You cut the tension with a knife
Take her home it'll be alright
I wonder if she ever lied... to me

She starts to cry now as she speaks
Every word I can't believe
I wonder if she even thought... of me

I'm fallin', fallin', fallin' apart
Fallin', fallin', fallin' apart
I'm fallin', fallin', fallin' apart
I'm fallin'

I can't see your face no more
I can't see what I adore
Everything I have is empty

As all my fears caught up with me
I'm tryin' hard, but I can't breathe
Fading faster, this is hard... for me

I'm fallin', fallin', fallin' apart
Fallin', fallin', fallin' apart
I'm fallin', fallin', fallin' apart
I'm fallin'

I can't see your face no more
I can't see what I adore
Everything I have is empty

Empty, empty
We're all empty, empty, empty
We're all empty, empty, empty
In my mind
Yeah, in my mind
In my mind

You said we'd be forever
You said we'd be alright
I don't think I fucked up this time

I can't see your face no more
I can't see what I adore
Everything I have is empty

I can't see your face again
Close my eyes and just pretend
Everything I have is empty
Is empty
Is empty
