

Luminous Bloom

Another Day Dawns

Dreamers
Dreaming
Dreamers hope
Dreaming of
A place to hide
A place not so black and white

Do we break?
Are we frail?
Or too much to take?

With sticks and stones a bloodied nose
We'll come back
With swollen eyes and fractured bones
We'll do anything to bloom
We've got everything to lose
With sticks and stones a bloodied nose
We'll come back

Freedom
Deceive us
Freedom from Believers of
Contempt for rights
You can't show the light to the blind

Do we break?
Are we frail?
Or too much to take?

With sticks and stones a bloodied nose
We'll come back
With swollen eyes and fractured bones
We'll do anything to bloom
We've got everything to lose
With sticks and stones a bloodied nose
We'll come back

We're all dreamers
Trained by the night
We're all dreamers
Ready to die

With sticks and stones a bloodied nose
We'll come back
With swollen eyes and fractured bones
We'll do anything to bloom
We've got everything to lose
With sticks and stones a bloodied nose
We'll come back

We're all dreamers
We're all dreamers
