

Psycho

Another Day Dawns

My little psycho
My little psycho
She hates the world, but she begs for attention
My little psycho
My little psycho
You look away and she still won't love you

My little psycho
My little psycho
She hates the world, but she begs for attention
My little psycho, my little psycho
You look away but she still won't love you

And I see the way you hate me
I can see you roll your eyes
Yeah

I'm not psycho, you cannot forget
Am I in your head?
I'm not psycho, you will not admit
To being lonely
Am I strange?
Am I wrong?
Like you said, I don't belong

I'm not psycho, you cannot forget
Am I in your head?

My little freakshow
My little freakshow
I got a ticket for a one-way ride
My little freakshow, my little freakshow
I got somethin' that you gon' like

My little psycho
My little psycho
Look at you now, got nothing left to offer
My little psycho
My little psycho
She hates herself, doesn't play well with others
(See the look inside)

I'm not psycho, you cannot forget
Am I in your head?
I'm not psycho, you will not admit
To being lonely
Am I strange?
Am I wrong?
Like you said, I don't belong

I'm not psycho, you cannot forget
Am I in your head?

Can you hear me? (Can you hear me?)
Can you hear me? (Can you hear me?)
How loud do I have to speak?
Can you hear me?

Can you hear me?
How loud do I have to speak?

I'm not psycho, you cannot forget
Am I in your head?
I'm not psycho, you will not admit
To being lonely
Am I strange?
Am I wrong?
Like you said, I don't belong

I'm not psycho, you cannot forget
Am I in your head?
