Kai

There's a story to be told with no reference to diamonds or gold these material things that phase and cloud the mind

It's a story straight from the heart no sequel, no second part just one face, one name My son Kai

You mean life to me you mean life to me no matter how far away I know that you're still here you mean life to me you mean life to me no matter how long it takes for you I will be

And you'll always be a part of me through your eyes I see eternally your smile it soothes the pain I see your heart it beats for you and me you'll always be a part of me through your eyes I see eternally

Only one reason why my son Kai my son Kai
