

That Girl Belongs to Me

Another Level

What you know about her and me The two of you could never be Boy you should check yourself
Maybe find somebody else
Some things were meant to be See that girl belongs to me It's time we got this straight
Don't come around 'cos she ain't down There's no longer you it's too late There must be some mistake That girl belongs to me you see This blond could never break No need to play a hate But there is just no way
No way that you can come between Or intervene our love Boy just let us be It's time you won't believe 'Cos your love will never take
Her love away from me So tell me why What you know it's plain to see
That girl belongs to me Boy you should check yourself Maybe find somebody else Some things were meant to be see
That girl belongs to me It's time you realize That what we had and what we shared Will never compromise No no no
You just don't understand That I'm the man she's living for You're just not part of our plan You think you're so romeo But you don't know that we have been Together all along Our love is strong, so what
What you know about her and me The two of you could never be You know it's plain to see
That girl belongs to me Boy you should check yourself Maybe find somebody else Some things were meant to be That girl belongs to me You think you're so romeo You knew that we've been together all along
And our love is so strong Chorus: 3 mal
