Burn

Anouk

Burn motherfucker, burn motherfucker, burn in hell
The rage was in my soul and I can tell
I want you to burn motherfucker, burn motherfucker, burn in hell
Cause bringing me down and popping my car was shit

You are taking up too much space

Cold and heartless
Like I won't behave
I was worth your guidance
Being used to a slave
But I can't live in a lie
Do you really wanna do this?
Oh, and fake it till we die
Fake it till we die, oh

Burn motherfucker, burn motherfucker, straight to hell
Pretend to be my lover, lover, but it don't sleep well, yeah
Burn motherfucker, burn motherfucker, burn in hell
I'm amazed how many keep fooling themselves

You are taking up too much space

Cold and heartless
Like I won't behave
Was your guidance
Being used to a slave
We could leave behind a lie
Do you really wanna do this?
Oh, and fake it till we die

I can't anymore
You really never had my back
The one who throws all those words
And then he all turned to black
Now I know I should've never
Trust an innoscent space
Cause it will never give me
Satisfaction that I crave

Do you really
Do you really wanna do this?
Do you really
Do you really wanna do this, do this?
Do you really
Do you really wanna do this?
(Fake it till we die)
Do you really
Do you really wanna do this, do this?
(Burn in hell)
Do this, do this
Do you really wanna my love, oh
Do you really wanna do this?
Do you really wanna do this?
Do you really wanna do this, do this?
Do you really wanna do this?

I said no, no
No, it will never, never, never give me
I said no, no way
It will never give me the satisfaction that I crave
So let's fake it till we die
Fake it till we die
