

Damage Done

Anouk

Rivers started flowing
The sky was turning black
And seasons changed
Frozen by confusion
I hardly recognized you in this state
Now is this what you wanted?
'Cause this is what you left behind
You've hit the ground
And fallen so hard it got you this time

Damage done, now ain't this fun, it's over
Ooh-ooh-ooh, and where you go
Ooh-ooh-ooh, I won't go
Damage done, now ain't this fun, it's broken
Ooh-ooh-ooh, and where you go
Ooh-ooh-ooh, I won't go no more

And wasn't there enough blood?
The blade too blunt to cut, you ran around
Stepping on their hearts, crushing their homes
Stand on their playground
We're playing this song and racing every word
I'm unable to, to move on
I wish I knew a way not to like you anymore

Damage done, now ain't this fun, it's over
Ooh-ooh-ooh, and where you go
Ooh-ooh-ooh, I won't go
Damage done, now ain't this fun, it's all broken
Ooh-ooh-ooh, and where you go
I won't, I won't go no more

Darkness of the skies
It's all that you chase
It's painted on your face

Damage done, now ain't this fun, it's over
Ooh-ooh-ooh, and where you go
Ooh-ooh-ooh, I won't go
Damage done, now ain't this fun, it's all broken
Ooh, where you go
I won't, I won't go no more
No more, no more
