

Hold Me

Anouk

The things you say in your innocent way, remind me how it should be.
Your love I can trace in a wide open space, though your beautiful face I see.
It's the way you are, and the way that you talk to me.
You're god's gift to my world, the prettiest girl and I feel like I live a dream.
The silence I fear, peace to the morning sun.
So...

Just hold me now, I'll stay here all night cause I don't feel so alone when you are, holding me tight love.

The things you do and say, always go hand in hand.
You're all you seem to be, not a shred of you pretends.
I will run like a fool, just to be by your side.
Don't hold back my love, you're my joy in this sad sad world.
You are safe with me, dreaming will be free.
So...

Just hold me now, I'll stay here all night cause I don't feel so alone when you are, holding me tight love (2x)

Holding me tight love, and if I could have it my way.
Tell you to stay here always.
And I will be waiting for you.
I'll be waiting and there's nothing else I can do.
You've taken me over.

Yeah...

Just hold me now, I'll stay here all night cause I don't feel so alone when you are,
holding me tight love.

Holding me tight love,
Holding me tight love...
