

I'm a Cliche

Anouk

It's not what I needed or what I wanted, but then again
Living a lie, I couldn't go on another day
There must have been a way to busy adoring you
It's over, oh oh

I hear hello, holding on my phone and I can't recall
That I ever felt this sad in my whole life before
My blood runs cold and honestly
I feel lonely, baby, so lonely, baby

These days are just way to bright
I need a reason to believe

'Cause I keep telling myself
That we are still in love
Even though you took off and broke my heart
And letting me know that I ain't the one you're looking for

Oehh, why do I keep telling myself
That we are still in love
Even though you took off and broke my heart
And letting me know that I ain't the one you need, no

We're talking all night to a filthy sky and some rain
I'm tryin' to find just little bits of yesterday
I guess you never knew how much I needed you, ooh
It's over

And handle it, covering my eye so I can see
Something's angels always what they seem to be Things in my mind keep flashing by What's going on, what the hell is going on

These days are just way to bright
I need a reason to believe, yeah

'Cause I keep telling myself
That we are still in love
Even though you took off and broke my heart
And letting me know that I ain't the one you're looking for

Ooh, why do I keep telling myself
That we are still in love
Even though you took off and broke my heart
And letting me know that I ain't the one you need, no

Ooohhhh, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
Oohhh, no
We're living a lie, baby, oh
We're living a lie, baby
We're living a lie, baby
We're living a lie, baby
We're living a lie, now
Lie now, heeey, he-he-he-he
He-he-he-he
He-he-he-he
We're living a lie

We're living a lie, hey
We're living a lie, baby
We're living a lie, baby
