

The Rules

Anouk

Rule number one: There will be no rules.
Rule number two: That's for you, that's for you.
Rule number three: When in doubt there's a door.
Rule number four: Tell me more, tell me more, tell me more.

No lies, no tricks of any kind
Be true, love hard, show insight
And I will absolutely love you.

Rule number five: Make sure God's on your side.
Rule number six: It will never be fixed in the mix, no.
Rule number seven: Leave no space in between.
And here's number eight: Just be real, not a make believe.

No lies, no tricks of any kind
Be true, love hard, show insight
And I will absolutely love you.

When shadows appear
Show me the power to shine
Travel the world all around
Laying the troubles down.

No lies, no tricks of any kind
Be true, love hard, show insight.

And I, yeah I,
I will absolutely love you.
