

Wigger

Anouk

I'm that true blond proud wigger
Born & raised in the suburbs
Became a Rock'n Roll singer
Tryin' to find my way going uptown

Hard work and determination
I never asked for anything
No higher education
Stood up tired of waiting

Too many choices and illusions
Smack flow just to survive
All clues, but no solutions
Struggle each day just to stay alive

It ain't just image i create
Don't fill your judgement full with hate
It ain't worth it
It ain't worth it

I'm that true blond proud wigger
Born & raised in the suburbs
Became a Rock'n Soul singer
Tryin' to find my way going uptown

Bring on that revolution
My kids' brown sugared skin
People jumping to conclusions
Letting me know I was made to sin

So done with moderation
You look around but you never look up
No intelligent conversation
I'll eat dirt but I won't shut up

It ain't just image i create
Don't fill your judgement full with hate
It ain't worth it
It ain't worth it

I'm that true blond proud wigger
Born & raised in the suburbs
Became a Rock'n Soul singer
Tryin' to find my way going uptown

It ain't just image i create
Don't fill your judgement full with hate
It ain't worth it
It ain't worth it

I'm that true blond proud wigger
Born & raised in the suburbs
Became a Rock'n Soul singer
Tryin' to find my way going uptown

True blond proud wigger
True blond proud wigger

True blond proud wigger
True blond proud wigger
