

Collide

Anson Seabra

Goodbye for real
Someone had to say it
Now my eyes are raining
Tears on the wheel
It wasn't forever
But I'm not saying never

We were two ships that passed
Couldn't shrink the ocean
Couldn't close the gap
We should leave in the past
And one day we might circle back

Maybe we'll collide
Maybe we'll collide

Do you believe
In a higher power
Maybe they're on our
Side
Guess we'll see
Have to let it go
'Cus only then we'll know
If

We were two ships that passed
Couldn't shrink the ocean
Couldn't close the gap
We should leave in the past
And one day we might circle back

Maybe we'll collide
Maybe we'll collide
Maybe we get lost out in forever
And never see each other again
Or maybe we collide

Ooooooooooooo
Ooooooooooooo

Maybe we get lost out in forever
And never see each other again
Or maybe we collide
