

Come Close

Anson Seabra

The writing's on the wall
And the ink's on my hands
And I've been trying to put this off
But I know that I can't

And what do you do when it won't work
And where do you go when it just hurts
And why does it always seem to end up just like this

'Cus we both know
That this is never gonna work
And I just hope
You find someone who puts you first
Who keeps you close
Who knows your heart and sees your worth
Who won't let go
Cus oh, well I know you deserve
Someone so much better
'Cus I'm someone who could never
Come close

Don't tell me you're surprised
'Cus I know that you're not
I could see it in your eyes
From the day that we started

And what do you do when it's okay
No reason to go but none to stay
And somehow it always seems to end up just like this

'Cus we both know
That this is never gonna work
And I just hope
You find someone who puts you first
Who keeps you close
Who knows your heart and sees your worth
Who won't let go
Cus oh, well I know you deserve
Someone so much better
'Cus I'm someone who could never
Come close

Cus oh, well I know you deserve
Someone so much better
'Cus I'm someone who could never
Come close
