

In Between

Ant Clemons

All you gotta do is
Catch a flight and pack a bag
PreCheck and first-class to LAX
There'll be a driver waiting with your name
Just to bring you back to my place, yeah
We, we can make some music
Scream my name, it's my favorite song
Lil' Louder till the neighbors bangin' on the wall
Like it's a fuckin' sing along
I'll never let nothin' except you come

In between, yeah
In between
Come experience outer body
When I'm in between
Me in your skin, me in your skin
Me in your skin, me in your skin
I'm all in when I'm in between
In between

I need, I need both your lips on my mustache
When you touch down, I wanna touch back
Let me rub you down, I'm your masseuse, therapist
Straighten you out and make you compassionate
Come up out your comfort zone
Soon as you get comfortable
You gon' come again, come again, and again and again
You ain't gotta do shit
Just turn around and bend it over
Arch ya back, yoga pose ya, bring it closer
Closer to me
And I'll never let in nothin' except you come

In between, yeah
In between
Come experience outer body
When I'm in between
Me in your skin, me in your skin
Me in your skin, me in your skin
I'm all in when I'm in between
In between (I'm all in)

In between, yeah
In between
Come experience outer body
When I'm in between
Me in your skin, me in your skin
Me in your skin, me in your skin
I'm all in when I'm in between
In between
