

OBSESSED

Ant Clemons

All these conversations
To get you on the beach
And that Chanel I gave you
Nothing underneath
(I love it, oh my God, I love it)

Ain't [?] that I hit back when you call
And [?] even in designer clothes
Yeah, I know you say it's difficult, but it ain't impossible
To love you

Ain't it obvious that I'm obsessed with you?
I'm obsessed with you
It's more than sex with you
(It's more than sex with you
I swear it's more than sex, 'cause)
I'm obsessed with you

I wanna taste your flavor
Like my favorite drink
And I supply the paper
When you want some weed
(Oh my God, love it, love it, love it, love it)

Ain't [?] that I hit back when you call
And [?] even in designer clothes
Yeah, I know you say it's difficult, but it ain't impossible
To love you

Ain't it obvious that I'm obsessed with you?
(Love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it)
I'm obsessed with you
(Love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it)
It's more than sex with you
(It's more than sex with you
I swear it's more than sex, 'cause)
I'm obsessed with you
(Love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it)
Love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it, love it...)

I'm obsessed with you
I'm obsessed with you
It's more than sex with you
(It's more than sex with you
I swear it's more than sex, 'cause)
I'm obsessed with you
(Oh my God, I love it)
(Oh my God, I love it)
