Ant Saunders

(Hey, I've been thinking about you all damn day)
(Hey, hey)

I've been up too damn late
Baby, it be like that
Said you better be on your way
Yeah, she gets mean like that (Yeah)
Gotta work later? That's okay (That's okay)
I just wanna see that ass
Baby, it be like that, oh yeah

I'm on the 5, it's 5 in the morning
I be in the whip, I drive like it's stolen
Now we on the phone and she think I'm trolling
But I'm about to turn that bed to an ocean, oh yeah

I've been thinking 'bout you ('Bout you)
Baby, all damn day (All day)

Baby, all damn day
I've been thinking 'bout you ('Bout you)
Baby, all damn day (All day)
You've been on my brain, yeah
Baby, all damn day

I see you throwing peace signs out the window like it's 2007 (7)
You're conversing with the universe, is it me you're manifesting? (How did you know?)
You got thieves tryna take your style, oh, you need yourself a patent
You're throwing me out reality, I can never tell what's happening
(I just wanna) Pop bottles of the blueberry on a Tuesday
Rose petals on the duvet, what do you say?
Now my wallet's made of Gucci, we can do things like
Wanna catch a flight? She said, "Absolutely" (Yeah)
Baby, let's hit the town (The town)
I wanna see you right now (Right now)
Traffic won't slow me down (Yeah)
Weaving in and out, yeah

I'm on the 5, it's 5 in the morning
I be in the whip, I drive like it's stolen
Now we on the phone and she think I'm trolling
But I'm about to turn that bed to an ocean, oh yeah
