

Miscommunications

Ant Saunders

Miscommunications

Can't ever have no good relations
Do I haunt your mind, am I a waste of time?
Guess I'll just carry on as a ghost

Misinterpretations

We're having differing vibrations
I apologize for all my great white lies
Where is the time when you need it the most?

Don't get your hopes up, baby
You're gonna think I'm crazy
Don't get your hopes up, baby
You're gonna think I'm crazy, uh-whoa

Fuck your limitations
Why let them become regulations?
Uncontrollably getting so lonely
Then swept away down deep through the flume

Lowered expectations
In every simple situation
This is unholy, I decay slowly
Water me in the fountain of youth

Don't get your hopes up, baby
You're gonna think I'm crazy
Don't get your hopes up, baby
You're gonna think I'm crazy
