

White Noise

Ant Saunders

I broke
When I spoke
I knew I shouldn't call
You know I've been so small

Your voice
My white noise
Now I can't sleep at all
This silence can't go on

You've been out chasing the sun, I don't wanna be selfish
I'm bound to be helpless
Can't make you take back the love that you put on the shelf
Is it all gone?

The further and further you push me
The more I forget who I could be

Can you call me baby one more time?
Wish you'd say you want me, play me good with a lie
I know in my heart we can't be restored
All I wish for is a trace of how it was before
Oh can you call me baby one more time?

We stood
So tall
Do you still recall?
We'd give
Our all
Even when we'd fall

It's been
Days since
You've asked how I've been
Pacing
And bracing
Grabbing at my skin

The way you've been so quick to judge don't seem necessary
Are you tryna scare me away?
The space you've been giving no longer seems temporary
Have you moved on?

Further and further you drag me
Hanging on cause you still have me

Can you call me baby one more time?
Wish you'd say you want me, play me good with a lie
I know in my heart we can't be restored
All I wish for is a trace of how it was before
Oh can you call me baby one more time?

When we say goodbye
(If you want to say goodbye
Can we kiss one more time?)

Say goodbye

(Or will you move on by
Leave me empty inside)

Hope you don't make me cry
(Can we kiss one more time?
Or will you move on by
Leave me empty inside)

When we say goodbye
(Can we kiss one more time?)
Say goodbye
