

LORD OF THE TETRAMORPH

ANTAGONIZER

Tongues of fire reaching towards the moon
As your shadow floods the earth, you bloom
The shattered sun is rising now
(I see you fall with the crumbling tower, I'm lost but I believe that you can hear my voice now)
Throw out your riches on the ground

Falling from the sky
Lucifer
I'll tell you
(Need to tell you)

Tongues of fire reaching towards the moon
As your shadow floods the earth, you bloom
The shattered sun is rising now
Throw out your riches on the ground

The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow
The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow

The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow
The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow

The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow
The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow

The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow
The holy fire is tumbling down, I know
I keep believing that you'll meet me somehow
