Coming Back

Anth

Saturday night and you're at home on your own
You say you're lonely
I know you're lonely

I know it's hard when I don't pick up my phone
Girl I'm so sorry
I swear I'm sorry

I know what you're thinking right now
I've been acting different right now
You say I never listen right now
But girl I've always been about you

I'm flying to your city right now
'Cus you're the one I'm missing right now
We ain't gotta finish right now

No there's no need to worry
I know you're waiting for me
Girl all you need to know is that
I'm coming back for you

Don't listen to the stories
You know they're only stories
Girl all you need to know is that
I'm coming back for you

You say I'm too caught up in the things that I do
Girl I can't help it
I just can't help it

You don't understand I only do this for you
But you won't accept it
You think I'm selfish

I know what you're thinking right now
I've been acting different right now
You say I never listen right now
But girl I've always been about you

I'm flying to your city right now
'Cus you're the one I'm missing right now
We ain't gotta finish right now

No there's no need to worry
I know you're waiting for me
Girl all you need to know is that
I'm coming back for you

Don't listen to the stories
You know they're only stories
Girl all you need to know is that
I'm coming back for you

I know you ain't gon wait for long
I hope I'm back before you're gone

No there's no need to worry
I know you're waiting for me
Girl all you need to know is that
I'm coming back for you

Don't listen to the stories
You know they're only stories
Girl all you need to know is that
I'm coming back for you
