

In Another Life

Anth

My mother always used to tell me
You know good things take time
And if you love somebody
Always remember to treat them right

I know it's over
But trust me baby
It doesn't mean goodbye
'Cause I know one day
We'll find each other again
In another life

I think I've ordered way too many bottles
Trying to drown out my sorrows
Hoping that you gon' come back to me today or tomorrow
Rainy days always follow
The truth is so hard to swallow
Fall in love and you'll get killed
Yeah, that's always gon' be the motto
I know
Giving my heart away has never been easy
Believe me
Careful with people I let in
'Cause they always deceive me
My fragile heart got missing pieces
It's you who completes me
Or maybe it was just karma coming around to teach me

But I wish I could be there with you
You don't know much I miss you
You don't know how bad that I wish you and I could fix our issues
You don't know how many times I have cried 'cause I can't convince you
That there isn't nothing inside this world that I wouldn't give you
You know that I love you, baby
All our friends think we're insane
You still are in love with me
Don't act like you don't feel the same
And I would give up all this money
I would give up all this fame
If that would mean that you would finally change

My mother always used to tell me
You know good things take time
And if you love somebody
Always remember to treat them right

I know it's over
But trust me baby
It doesn't mean goodbye
'Cause I know one day
We'll find each other again
In another life

My therapist said if I took you back that this would happen
My friends said the same and I wouldn't blame them if they're laughing
But I was in love with you, I forgave all of your actions
Maybe it wasn't love at all and it was an attachment

Or was it just a trauma bond
I don't even know what to call it
Loved you so much that I ignored the skeletons in your closet
And all the years we spent together
Don't act like you forgot it
Adam and Eve still stayed together when the apple was rotten
You've been the only one I've wanted
Still the one that I want
Don't give a damn who knows it
No reason for me to front
Cannot predict the future but I know it's not the end
You'll be the love of my life and best friend
Again

My mother always used to tell me
You know good things take time
And if you love somebody
Always remember to treat them right

I know it's over
But trust me baby
It doesn't mean goodbye
'Cause I know one day
We'll find each other again
In another life
