

Mona Lisa

Anth

I call her Mona Lisa, Girl, you know I need ya
I can't wait to see ya and get you alone
We drunk off that Tequila, drink it by the liter
She my Mona Lisa, and worth more than gold
Ooh, woah (Aye)

Yeah, I swear she a work of art
Knew that she was the one right from the start
All it took was one shot, and she hit her mark
I ain't ever been a fool, but I'll play the part
Now I spend 10 grand when we hit the mall
Everybody know my name when I hit the store
Louis V, YSL, she ain't been before
Baby you ain't gotta choose, you can have it all Yeah, and girl I've been th e man before I turned 18
And you'd be surprised from all the things I've seen
I was broke as hell but yeah, I had big dreams
And now I blow through money like it grow on trees, baby
Show you what it is, baby
Show you how I live, baby
Gotta lotta money and I gotta lotta time you and I can spend, baby

I call her Mona Lisa, Girl, you know I need ya
I can't wait to see ya and get you alone
We drunk off that Tequila, drink it by the liter
She my Mona Lisa, and worth more than gold

I don't ever give my love
But for you I'll give it up
Got me thinking you're the one
Thinking about the things I've done
I would throw it all away
Just for you to look my way
Listen to the words I say
Promises that I won't break, no, no
Never lie, gonna ride for you
Never waste your time, it's you and I against the world
Never make you cry, and I swear that's my word
All them other guys, they don't know what you're worth
That's real, let you know how I feel Baby, say the word and I will
You done put a bullet in my heart like looks could kill

I call her Mona Lisa, Girl, you know I need ya
I can't wait to see ya and get you alone
We drunk off that Tequila, drink it by the liter
She my Mona Lisa, and worth more than gold
Ooh, woah

My Mona, my Mona, my Mona Lisa
My Mona, my Mona, my Mona Lisa
My Mona, my Mona, my Mona Lisa
My Mona, my Mona, my Mona Lisa
