

So Many Reasons

Anth

There's so many reasons why I know that I should leave ya
There's so many reasons why I know that I don't need ya
There's so many reasons why we should see other people
But I'll never leave your side, nothing can come between us
There's so many reasons why we don't belong together
There's so many reasons why this will not last forever
There's so many reasons why someone else would be better
But I'll never know 'cus we gon' work it through whatever

What the fuck happened to us
I feel like our future is crushed
I feel like we've both had enough
I went and bought us a crib
It's a shame that you're moving out after like only a month
It's getting too much
I know that it's rough
All of our problems keep piling up
I know that this saying is cliché as fuck
But we don't got nothing if we don't got trust
And that's how it goes
You already know
I've said it so much that the shit's getting old
But you just keep lying about texts on your phone
And taking your ring off wherever you go
That shit is so strange
Oh damn what a shame
I thought that you promised you were gonna change
You say that you're different but you're still the same
You're 32 still playing games
Then you call me a dick and you call me a prick Say you deserve so much better than this Well if you think that you're better than this
You can go get the fuck out of my crib
So pack all your shit
I'm so done with this
I do not give a fuck what time it is
Who the fuck you think you're talking to bitch
I ain't forget all the bullshit you did
Then you start to cry
Then you start to leave
And then I pretend like it don't bother me
You're packing your bags
And you're grabbing your keys
And then you tell me that we're not meant to be
You say that it's over, we know that it's not
'Cus there ain't nobody else that we want
I know that it's toxic but I love you with all that I got

There's so many reasons why I know that I should leave ya
There's so many reasons why I know that I don't need ya
There's so many reasons why we should see other people
But I'll never leave your side, nothing can come between us
There's so many reasons why we don't belong together
There's so many reasons why this will not last forever
There's so many reasons why someone else would be better
But I'll never know 'cus we gon' work it through whatever
Ooh, Whoa, Whoa

Drama why do we constantly always get into it
Screaming out I be hollering that I didn't do it
It a be itty bitty shit that be literally thee epitome and the reason that w e're really going through it Conjuring the argument out of anywhere and we're so animated over something so petty it's a shame
You be making me sick, get up out of my face, instead of making up we're alw ays wondering about who gets the blame Empathy over you I can just open it up, sympathy showing you I was just hopi ng for love
It could be victory if it was chemistry and I ain't a quitter but right now
I feel like I wanna give up
But every time I look at your face, your aura shines over negativity and I w anna fight the feeling
Imagine if the problem wasn't even us and the communication was therapeutic it could be quite revealing
Things that we could be going through with our inner self, once we face it t hen we can cherish each other
Never do wrong and look at our partner in a higher regard, never disrespect or embarrass each other
Fly couple don't let them try to put no dirt on it, now you know that proble ms ain't gotta be permanent
You can talk about your relationship under the canopy then go tell the famil y you finna work on it
Get it together, never stumbling over the beat I be doing a a pace-and a tempo I feel like I can make u relate Then imma take you into another dimension and perspective about what's tragi c and the magic that you could make Should we fight for each other and keep it going on, should we simply call i t a wrap and leave it alone
All I know is that it feels like it's hard to pick either 'cus

There's so many reasons why I know that I should leave ya
There's so many reasons why I know that I don't need ya
There's so many reasons why we should see other people
But I'll never leave your side, nothing can come between us
There's so many reasons why we don't belong together
There's so many reasons why this will not last forever
There's so many reasons why someone else would be better
But I'll never know 'cus we gon' work it through whatever
Ooh, Whoa Whoa
